

Download Illustrated Bartsch

The Illustrated Bartsch consists of images of European master prints from around 1400 until the arrival of the Industrial Revolution, around 1850. This 450-year span details the origins of printmaking, from entirely manually created and pulled prints, to the introduction of mechanical printing presses and photography. The Illustrated Bartsch A collaboration between Abaris Books (an imprint of the Opal Publishing Corporation), the Council on Library and Information Resources , and Luna Imaging, Inc. has contributed more than 50,000 images of European prints from the 15th to the early 19th centuries to the Artstor Digital Library.
