A selection of love poems (or songs) from the Man'Yoshu, a millennium-old anthology of Japanese poems (4500 all together); this slim but gorgeous book selects 30-odd of these brief poems and presents them in Japanese and English, along with informed commentary. Most importantly, however, each poem is accompanied by a fantastic work of art - sensual, erotic, intricate - which neatly encapsulates the spirit of the poem. It is the art which is the star of this book, bringing a world of past ...Buy Love Songs from the Man'yoshu: Selections from a Japanese Classic (Kodansha's Illustrated Japanese Classics) by Makoto Ooka (2000-08-01) by Makoto Ooka (ISBN: ) from Amazon's Book Store. A sensitive appraisal of the Man’yoshu, Richard! And what you say is true — that there is a diminution of our sensibility by the byte-sized ductus we have moved into, which cares about succinctness, but it is rarely the concision of the distillate ...
