The Day The Crayons Quit Poor Duncan just wants to colour in. But when he opens his box of crayons, he only finds letters, all saying the same thing: We quit! Beige is tired of playing second fiddle to Brown, Blue needs a break from colouring in all that water, while Pink just wants to be used. Green has no complaints, but Orange and Yellow are no longer speaking to each other. Write a new letter from one of the crayons to Duncan. Write a new story about everyday objects that decide to quit. Find synonyms for different colours (e.g. Red = Crimson, maroon, rose, cherry). Make a colour thesaurus that you can refer to in your own writing. Write a conversation between two (or more) of the crayons. "The Day the Crayons Quit" By Drew Daywalt Pictures by Oliver Jeffers.
