THE SECRET LIBRARY Craig Halstead Kindle Edition I suppose that with the huge number of new independent authors taking advantage of the exposure offered by self publishing on Kindle there are going to be some with great talent hitherto unpublished and some who should seek the guidance of an experienced fiction editor. I believe that this author is in the latter bracket. Secret Library today welcomes Charles Harris, whose novel, The Breaking of Liam Glass is out on 29 June. We'll be reviewing the book in due course but in the meantime Charles has some favourites to share. He is, by the way, a writer, director and script consultant for cinema, television and theatre, has a number of non-fiction and short story titles under his belt, and speaking of belts, he's a black belt in Aikido and trainer in arts against street violence. Welcome to the library, Charles.
